ELABORATE PREPARATIONS BE-SENOR YOACHAM AT DINNER. TOKEN A GREAT SUCCESS.

Nearly Every Charity in District Is Represented in Both or

Every minute of sunshine up to noon today meant money and success for the charity fete at Friendship, the John R. Mc-Lean residence on Tenleytown road. The fete began at 2 o'clock and will continue this afternoon and again tomorrow at 2 o'clock. Despite the pouring rain yesterday the necessary preparation in the erection of booths and tents went forward, and when the fete opened today everything and everybody was ready. A gigantic scale of business is expected, and both today and tomorrow can be profitably spent in patronising the attractions, purchasing either necessities or luxuries or witnessing the sports, field and otherwise. Carriages will be admitted to the grounds, but automobiles must be parked in the lot adjoining. parked in the lot adjoining.

From the gate to the mansion and radiating in divers ways from this path, the booths and tents are located, and, presided over as they are by some of the most popular men and women in society, the temptation to linger and incidentally leave a silver tribute will be overwhelming.

Now that you are dead, dear mother,
And amid sweet flowers laid,
Out in the quiet cemetery,
Out in the quiet cametery,
Out in the quiet shade,
My feet will ofttimes wander
Toward thy sacred grave,
Where sleeps the one that I love best,
The one I could not save.
